

Double Degree Program to obtain a Master's Degree (MA) in International Affairs (John Cabot University) and a Laurea Magistrale (LM) in Relations and Institutions of Asia and Africa (University of Naples L'Orientale)

1 - Teaching Programme

1.1 The curriculum of this Double Degree Programme is presented in Annex 1 which is an integral part of this agreement. Changes to Annex 1 do not affect the whole agreement.

1.2 The list of courses to be taken may be subject to changes as the academic offer is amended.

2 - Admission requirements and procedures

2.1 Students apply to each program through the normal University admissions process and follow the deadlines for admission published by either University. The coordinator of each program will evaluate the applications for admission to the program and advise the student while they are at the University. Each University will decide how many students they wish to admit for any given year based on the published admissions criteria. Selection criteria include the following minimum requirements:

- a) students must have successfully completed a Bachelor's Degree or equivalent (i.e. John Cabot University students do not require a dichiarazione di valore or CIMEA certification; nor are they to be admitted with debiti).
- b) students have to demonstrate their language proficiency in English (level C1 or equivalent) or, alternatively, completion of a Bachelor Programme taught in English
- c) additional criteria for admission to L'Orientale's LM in Relations and Institutions of Asia and Africa can be found here: <https://www.unior.it/it/studia-con-noi/didattica/immatricolarsi-e-iscriversi/modalita-di-accesso-ai-corsi/lauree-9B2>.
- d) Additional criteria for admission to John Cabot University's MA in International Affairs can be found here: <https://www.johncabot.edu/master-international-affairs/admissions.aspx>

3 – Student mobility

3.1 Double Degree students will attend the second year of the Programme at the host institution according to the course programme description given in Annex 1. Double Degree students can choose the courses/exams to take according to the Double Degree Study Plan in Annex 1.

In order to avoid duplication of the courses/exams and also to define a study programme coherent with the planning objectives of each course, the Study programme should be discussed and defined together with the coordinator of the home MA/LM degree or with a person delegated by them.

3.2 Students from L'Orientale will earn 60 ECTS at John Cabot University upon successful completion of their courses. Students from John Cabot University will earn 60 ECTS at L'Orientale upon successful completion of their courses.

4 - Tuition fees

4.1. In order to be enrolled at the host university, students have to submit all relevant documents as specified by the host Universities and pay all relevant tuition fees associated with each University according to the regular tuition deadlines for either program published by the University.

4.2 Through this partnership agreement John Cabot University offers financial aid for LM students from L'Orientale University who wish to earn their MA degree at John Cabot University. This includes up to two, full-year tuition scholarships for a single year of study at John Cabot University. Likewise, L'Orientale will guarantee the waiver of registration and tuition fees for up to two students per year from John Cabot University upon condition of reciprocity. More students may be admitted to either program without funding provided by the University.

For L'Orientale relevant documents include :

- a) proof of payment of the regional tax for the right to study, and stamp duty;
- b) a learning agreement for the Double Degree;
- c) a copy of their passport or identity card;
- d) a copy of their transcript of records

For John Cabot University:

- a) a learning agreement for the Double Degree;
- b) Transcripts of their undergraduate degree;
- c) Three letters of recommendation
- d) A completed application which can be found at: <https://www.johncabot.edu/master-international-affairs/admissions.aspx>
- e) further information on tuition and admission to the MA program in International Affairs can be found here: <https://www.johncabot.edu/graduate-center/graduate-tuition-and-housing-dollars.aspx>

4.3. In order to complete the admission process, additional information and documents may be provided by each party.

5 - Degree

5.1 Students will be awarded their degrees upon successful completion of the required courses and credit hours for each University program: 36 US credits or 72 ECTS for John Cabot and 60 US credits or 120 ECTS for L'Orientale. An overall minimum grade point average of 2.00 is required for all courses taken at the John Cabot University, with no more than two grades lower than C- in core courses.

5.2 Students from L'Orientale will earn 60 ECTS at John Cabot University. Students from John Cabot University will earn 60 ECTS at L'Orientale. John Cabot University and L'Orientale University will recognize advanced transfer credits from either University as specified in Annex 1 to fulfil the remaining credit hours required by either MA or LM program.

5.3 Two separate diplomas will be awarded to Double Degree students who have fulfilled these requirements:

- a) The diploma from John Cabot University: "Master of Arts" in International Affairs
- b) The diploma from L'Orientale: "Laurea Magistrale" in Relations and Institutions of Asia and Africa (LM/52)

6 - Student enrolment, credit recognition and transfer

6.1 Each party will keep appropriate records of the Double Degree students registered in the Programme and provide Double Degree students and the other party with the official transcript of records specifying the activities which have been carried out

6.2 Exams (or final grades of Courses) taken at the host university during the mobility period will be transferred to the home university according to the Double Degree study plan (Annex 1)

6.3 Should a Double Degree student fail one or more exams (or courses) at the host university, the student shall be required to retake those exams (or courses). At L'Orientale, students must retake this exam during the specified retake session, as scheduled by the Department in the planning of the academic year exams calendar.

In the case of a second fail, the student may again register for a further year of the Master and retake the missing exam(s) provided and graded by the university. For John Cabot University, a failed course must be repeated in its entirety (including attending classes throughout the semester), or an approved equivalent course completed, in order for the student to receive credit.

6.4 Transfer of credits between the partner institutions will be made using the Grades Conversion Table in Annex 1. For L'Orientale this evaluation will be carried out by the Erasmus Commission.

7 - Thesis, evaluation, composition jury and transfer of documents

7.1 During their mobility period, Double Degree students will complete their theses or fulfill equivalent graduation requirements set by their home institution. Students will complete their thesis requirement in the second year of their study. Students who begin their studies at John Cabot, therefore, will write their MA thesis at L'Orientale. Students who begin their studies at L'Orientale will write their MA thesis at John Cabot, but in this case they are required to discuss their thesis also at L'Orientale.

7.2. Double Degree students must respect all academic procedures and deadlines from both institutions.

7.3 Double Degree students shall comply with L'Orientale/John Cabot procedures regarding the thesis assignment, registration for the degree exam, submission of an electronic copy of the thesis and/or any other relevant online deposit procedure.

7.4. Double Degree students are required to write the final thesis in English. A copy of the final thesis will be submitted to both institutions.

7.5 The parties agree to mutually recognize the thesis or equivalent graduation requirements done at the partner university, to accept the results of examination and the grades given, according to their own regulation. Thesis grades will transfer following the Grades Conversion Table in Annex 1.

7.6 Both parties shall give prompt communication of all grades obtained by Double Degree students, in order to allow the examination boards to organize deliberations in due time.

8 - Grades conversion

8.1 The European Credit Transfer System (ECTS) will be used for conversion of credits taken at L'Orientale University. John Cabot University uses the US credit system in which a single credit is equal to one semester hours. One John Cabot Credit is equivalent to two ECTS credits.

9 – Double Degree Students' right and duties

9.2 Double Degree students shall be granted full access to both the institutions' facilities (such as Library, Laboratories, etc.) during their studies. Provision of health insurance shall be regulated by the rules of each party.

9.3 During the exchange period in the host institution, Double Degree students shall comply with its internal regulations.

9.4 During their mobility period at the host institution, Double Degree students shall be allowed to:

- a) attend classes and take the prescribed exams at the end of courses taken;
- b) pursue research activities aimed at the production of the MA thesis;
- c) take part in student traineeship/orientation activities for students at L'Orientale and John Cabot.

10- Contact Persons / Programme Coordinators

10.1 Each party appoints an academic programme coordinator and an administrative programme coordinator who will be in charge of the administrative execution of this agreement and who will serve as the contact person for L'Orientale and John Cabot students who are participating in the Double Degree Programme.

10.2 The local contact person for each party is detailed in Annex 2 – Fact Sheet

11 – Treatment of Personal Data

All personal data will be processed in full compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation UE 679/2016 (GDPR) as well as with the parties' national legislation.
